

I strongly support "Title Two" net neutrality rules. The internet should continue to be a free place who access is not governed and fueled by corporate greed. All consumers should have equal access to the vast information on the internet. There should be no discrimination amongst these resources. If there's one thing America continues to preach, it's freedom. Please keep the internet freedom alive.